Ceremer Openheimer Secures Impa tant Testimony.

At Navarre, yesterday, Coroner Openheimer began to take testimony for the purpose of ascertaining the cause of the death of Postal Clerk W. T. McLean. who died at noon, Saturday, from injuries received in the W. & L. E. wreck at that village last Thursday. He examined thirteen witnesses, the aggregate evidence being voluminous in the extreme. From the mass is collected the following important testimony:

Jacob Kline—I am section foreman in the employ of the W. & L. E. road. I did some work on the switch, where the accident occurred, three months ago. did not put in the switch. was cutting rail for where the frog was taken out. I helped to spike the track. I surfaced up the switch after the work was done. The switch was in good con dition when I looked at it in the morning. The switch, at any time I looked at was laying up as tight as it could lay. The nails we drove in the bridle rod were to make up the lock motion. was always satisfied that the switch was all right. I don't believe I ever told Mr. Adly that it was not a safe switch. There were nails on the sidetrack rail but none en the main. Last Saturday there were not three nation one sade and six on that was removed from the old place.

Wm. Reynolds uses nails for the same purpose that I do. We had to use nails to make it safer. I notified the company last fall that the switch was not safe, and deceased was a resident of Massillon and | have been trying to get the new switch, but they would not allow it. Another important witness was John

Thomas, the principle feature of his testimony being that he had heard Section Foreman Jacob Klein tell Roadmaster Adly several mohths ago that an accident would occur at that switch if it was not repaired. The coroner will be in Massillon on Wednesday to take the testimony of Jaz. M. Clark, who was a passenger on the train, and one or two others, and his verdict will then be rendered in a day or two. An attorney from Alliance was with the coroner at Navarre to look after the reporter last night that the railroad company was clearly culpable for the death. Another Case For the Coroner.

pecial Dispatch to The Independent. CANTON, March 17 .- The coroner was called to Alliance this afternoon to investigate the cause of the death of a newly born infant, found yesterday by children. The head was missing from the body, and the officer who went to bury the body found the head back of his own stable. He tried to keep the matter quiet, but it leaked out through the children. A W. & L. E. Brakeman Killed. J. D. Dean, a freight brakeman on the Wheeling & Lake Erie road, met a shocking death at Orrville to-day. He was "dropping in" cars, and, while climbing down between two of them to pull a coupling pin, fell between. The wheels caught his heel, and he had presence of mind sufficient to make an effort to throw himself outside of the track, but failed and was carried between the rails. One arm and one leg were cut off and death ensued from shock about noon two hours after the accident. He was 24 years of age, was married on the 27th of last month, and lived at Fremont. Mr. Chaboudy's Explanation. Alexis Chaboudy, implicated as de-

THE SOLICITOR'S SUGGESTION.

The solicitor suggested that if the desired ordinance came to hand prior to the next meeting it could be published for the information of the public, but that it should be acted upon at the next meeting.

Mr. Dangler was opposed to action on the matter until an ordinance was prepared to submit to the people. He was willing to delay action six weeks if necessary.

On motion of Mr. Clutz the ordinance was referred to the select committe con« sisting of Messrs. Dangler and Seiler, to eport at the next meeting. The ordinance providing for a regulation uniform for the policemen and marshal came up in its regular order for third reeding. Mr. Leu expressed himself as in favor of the uniforms but was opposed to the city paying for them, and on his motion the ordidance was laid over for one week. Mr. Volkmor reported on the class

Under the call for miscellaneous business Mr. Cluiz introduced a very gentle and childlike resolution providing that the yacancy in the driver's position at the central engine house be filled by the members of Hose Company No. 1, and that the person so selected perform his duties under such rules and regulations as said company may adopt, said rules and regulations to be approved by the standing committee on fire department of the council.

Mr. Dangler tersely stated that he was not there to throw away any rights, one of which was the election of the driver in question, and was opposed to the resolution. The resolution was defeated without a call of the yeas and nays. On motion of Mr. Hering the body proceeded to ballot for a driver for the central engine house. L. S. Stochr and William Royer were appointed tellers. REPUBLICANS NOT STUBBORN. The 207th ballot, the first of the even-

The artention of THE INDEPENDENT has been called to the frequency with which loads of hay and straw, often as many as three, usurp the main business streets for hours at a time, to the annoyance of the general public. The streets are not to be occupied as a market, and the presence of these immense loads should not be continued, when there are market squares for the purpose. The only ordinance on street obstructions does not seem to reach this matter.

After singing the suffrage song "Columbia's Daughters," the minutes were read and approved. The president, Mrs. Lytle, then introduced Mrs. Caroline Mc-Cullough Everhard, who in a brief but interesting manner gave a history of the work that is being done throughout the state, and urged the association to become auxiliary to the state association, and also to be well represented at the state convention, which will be held in May, at Warren.

During her remarks she referred to a question that was asked her before the meeting, "Why do women want suf-frage?" "Why do men want to vote?" was her characteristic reply. unsightly lumps or swellings in the neck; which causes running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or "humors;" which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. It is the most ancient of all diseases, and very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. If you suffer from scrofula, try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

DAMAGE TO THE NAVY.

A SERIES OF NAVAL DISASTERS RE-PORTED TO THE DEPARTMENT.

An Investigation Will be Ordered to Determine the Responsibility of the day - Three American Vessels Now Ashore Off Cutty Hunk.

been caused to the American navy as that of Saturday and Sunday. Three vessels are now ashore along the coast Nina and the Triana. The latter vessel, of their scalps. The old fellow crossed the navy department is informed, went the Alleghenies with several others and ashore off Cutty Hunk. She is in a very dangerous position and if the weather continues rough may become a total loss. The Triana left Newport Sunday morning to render assistance to the Nina and the Galena. A dispatch from Lieutenant Commander Bicknell, in command of the Galena at the time she went ashore, to the navy department, states that the Galena lost her rudder, states that the Galena lost her rudder, post and part of her keel. He expressed the hope that the Nina would be saved if the weather was favorable. No mention was made of saving the Galena and at the navy department she is regarded as totally lost.

Description of the Galena.

The Galena at the time of the disaster was being towed to the Portsmouth. West Virginia legislature adjourned N. H., navy yard for repairs. Her old vesterday. In the senate there was no engines had been taken out and her new engines were upon the upper deck and were to have been placed in position at the Portsmouth navy yard. The engines cost $20,000. The Galena was a third-rate vessel of 1,900 tons and cost the United States in building and repairs put upon her nearly $1,000,000. The Nipa is a true of $357 tons and the was afterward remitted, although be Triana a tug of 450 tons burden. Tow-boats have been ordered from Vineyard Haven, New Bedford and Woods Holl to the assistance of the three vessels. court of inquiry will be ordered within a few days to determine the responsibility for these series of naval disasters.

Congress Neglects an Appropriation. Washington, March 17. — Treasury department officials have discovered that congress, while it created a bureau of immigration in the treasury department, did not make an appropriation to carry out its intention. The act creates a superintendent of immigration, names the number of clerks to be attached to the bureau, with their several grades, and defines the duties of the bureau. This work is now done by different bureaus. Assistant Secretary Spaulding is looking into the matter, and it will probably be referred to the comptroller of the treasury for a legal construction before a final decision is reached as to whether the bureau can be established without the money to pay its employes.

The Kincaid-Taulbee Case Postponed. WASHINGTON, March 17 .- The trial of Charles E. Kincaid for shooting Representative Taulbee, of Kentucky, was set for yesterday in the criminal court. When the case was called counsel for the defense asked for a continuance owing to the absence of material witnesses. The court granted a postponement until 1 o'clock in the afternoon, to enable the defense to prepare affidavits in favor of postponement. Later in the day the court adjourned, when the affidavits will be presented and further action taken on a motion to postpone for a week.

Claim of New York State for Direct Taxes. WASHINGTON, March 17.-Fifth Auditor Habercom of the treasury department yesterday passed favorably upon the claim of New York state for the refund of about two and a quarter millions, the largest claim ever audited in that bureau—the amount of direct taxes due the state under the terms of the new law. The claim now goes to the first comptroller of the treasury and then to the secretary for his signature and the issuance of a warrant for the amount.

The Minnesota Legislature.

ST. PAUL, March 17.—The senate yesterday, by a vote of 38 to 16, passed the usury bill, which provides for 6 and 8 per cent. interest and the forfeiture of both principal and interest in case of overcharge. If the bill should pass the house by less than a two-third vote Governor Merriam will probably veto it.

CLEVELAND, O., March 17.—The grand jury in the trial of the Rev. Howard MacQueary met in this city yesterday. Two sessions of the court were held, but no final agreement was reached and the court adjourned. It is said that of the five ministers on the jury three find MacQueary guilty of heresy and two dissent. The members are not quite satisfied as to the punishment. The verdict will be handed to Bishop Leonard and will then be made public

The Irish Envoys Will Not Participate. NEW YORK, March 17.—In order to avoid any ill feeling the Irish envoys will in all probability not take part in the St. Patrick's day parade, even as spectators. In the evening, however, Messrs. Harrison and O'Connor, being the Tipperary county representatives of the visiting delegation will attend the Tipperary County Men's association festivities at Clarendon hall. The others will go to the ball of the Sixty-ninth regiment at Tammany hall.

Serious Collision at Sea.

London, March 17 .- A serious maritime disaster is reported. The ship Roxburgh collided with the ship British Peer, of Calcutta, for London, 120 miles southwest of the Sicily islands. The Roxburgh sank and twenty-two of crew were drowned, the captain and one seaman being rescued. The other ship was badly damaged.

10,000 Cases of La Grippe at Minneapolis. MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., March 17.—La grippe claimed its first victim in Minne apolis this winter late Friday. The epidemic prevails to an extent which caused much uneasiness. A careful estimate places the number of cases in this city at fully 10,000.

QUIET REIGNS SUPREME.

NOT THE LEAST BIT OF EXCITEMENT IN NEW ORLEANS NOW.

Business is Going on as Usual and Stranger Could Not Guess by Outward Signs the City Had Been the Scene of a Tragedy Which Startled the World.

NEW ORIEANS, March 17 .- The excitement over the lynching has cooled down somewhat. Now that the full particulars of the bloody affair are known, there has been some slight revulsion of public sentiment, and a number of people express their strong disapproval of the action of the mob, parthere is very little evidence. The majority of the people, however, strongly support the action of the mob and of the committee of safety under whose orders it acted, and while admitting that more of the prisoners were killed than had been originally intended, insist that this was inevitable in a movement of this kind. They point to the fact that the mob marched to and from the prison, and that no one was disturbed or injured save the men accused of murder.

Mass at the Prison.

Father O'Leary, of the Jesuit church, held mass at the Parish prison for the repose of the souls of the men killed. The funerals of the men were without show or demonstration. No one claiming the bodies of Marchesi, Monasterio and Trabena, they were taken in a cart to the potter's field and buried there, not a friend or relative being present nor any ceremonies held. No one but his wife attended Polizzi's funeral. At the funerals of Macheca and Caruso, which occurred together, they living near each other, there was a large at-tendance of friends, as both of the men were well connected by marriage. Nearly all the men

Leave Large Families.

Macheca leaves six children; Geracci, widow and five children; Caruso, a widow; Scaffedi, a widow and one child; Romero, a widow and five children; Comitez, a widow and one child. With the exception of three all the men had been residents of New Orleans for twenty years. Macheea was consul here of the republic of Bolivia. Charles Patorno, one of the prisoners, escaped death Saturday by being confined in one of the women's cells, but was so excited by the mob and the shooting that he has gone insane again. When first placed in the prison he was similarly attacked. but had recovered. Father Manoretta, of the Italian Church of St. Anthony says that he has received a letter which he will lay before the district attorney,

Signed by the Mafia And threatening his life. He has been an earnest opponent here of the Mafia and similar secret societies among his fellow citizens. He does not think that the actions of the mob yesterday will suppress the Mafia, but that it will be heard from yet. Several of the Italian vessels here lowered their flags or placed them at half mast, when the news of the lynching reached them. A large sum of money was raised for the defense of the prisoners, their countrymen in all portions of the United States contributing to it, and some coming from Italy. It was understood that the six men acquitted Friday would be released, and a banquet was in preparation in honor of the conclusion of the great Hennessy murder trial. The authorities will, in every probability, take some action against the leaders of the mob, but it is understood that it will be merely pro forma, and that nothing can be done to them.

Modes of Enforcing the Law.

Attorney General Walter H. Rogers was seen and questioned as to his instructions in the premises. He said:
"The question now presented to the authorities clothed with jurisdiction in this city and parish is: Have the laws of the state been violated? What crimes have resulted from such violence? The grand jury is in session, and we have all the means and modes of enforcing the laws. I have no doubt those charged with official duty will act firmly, justly and fearlessly." Superintendent of Po-lice Gaster was asked what steps he intended to take in the matter, and said that he could not arrest the community. Governor Nicholls explains his failure to call out the militia by the fact that he did not have time to do so.

Leather Interests Favor Reciprocity. WASHINGTON, March 17 .- A delegation of the Massachusetts Leather association called on President Harrison and Secretary Blaine yesterday. Ex-Representative Claffin, Gardner G. Hubbard and Charles R. Flint did the talking for the delegation. They expressed to both the president and Secretary Blaine their satisfaction at the policy of reciprocity the United States had adopted with the South American countries and incident-ally put in a plea for the leather inter-

A LUTHERAN SENSATION.

Exclusion of a Church for Admitting Members of Secret Societies.

St. PAUL, March 17.-Lutheran church circles in Minnesota are discuss ing the action of the Augustana Synod, which has excluded the church at Lichfield, with a membership of 200, from both conference and synod. The matter came before the conference in the shape of a report from a committee appointed at last year's meeting. At that time it was reported to the conference that the congregation at Litchfield was deliberately violating the rules of the church by admitting to membership persons be longing to secret societies or orders. A committee was at that time appointed to investigate, and it reported that the members of the Litchfield congregation had decided, by ballot, not to exclude approval of the action of the mob, particularly the killing of men who had not yet been tried, and against whom motion to exclude the church was carried by a vote of 77 yeas to 10 nays.

Smallpox at St. Louis.

St. Louis, March 17.-Great alarm is manifested over the breaking out of smallpox among the patients at the city hospital. It was discovered that James Campbell, a patient in division No. 9, was suffering from smallpox. He was removed to the pest house at once. The following day three more cases broke out. Saturday four cases developed, and to-day six more patients were removed to the pest house.

THE MAFIA IN SAN FRANCISCO. How the Gang Flourished and Terrorized Their Countrymen.

SAN FRANCISCO. March 17. - About a dozen years ago a Mafia society flourished in San Francisco. Members of the gang terrorized their countrymen found, Hundreds of dollars worth of missing and others exactly as the Chinese Highbinders have been doing recently. They robbed and murdered and had the entire Italian community in a state of terror. At length a robbery was committed which led to the arrest of a half dozen men and one, named Meli, was convicted and sent to state's prison for six years. Three others were sentenced for shorter terms. Meli, after serving his term, was extradited for a murder he had committed in Sicily. This broke the society in this city.

HUMAN FLESH BURNED.

AN ENTIRE FAMILY CAUGHT IN A FIRE TRAP AT PITTSBURG.

Three of Them Fatally Injured - Two House a Two-Story Frame and Burned Like Tinder-Some Badly Hurt by

PITTSBURG, March 17.-A fire attended with dreadful consequences occurred in Wassers' row, Eden alley, near Fortyfirst street, shortly after 11 o'clock last night. Five members of the family of Wolf Kupermann, his wife, three small children and his brother-in-law were all frightfully burned, and three of them are expected to die as a result of their injuries. They were removed to the West Penn hospital for treatment. The victims and the nature and extent of their injuries are given below:

Mrs. Rachael Kupermann, 37 years of age, terribly burned about the face, neck, head, arms and entire upper portion of the body; will probably die.

Simon Kupermann, brother of Wolf Kuperman, aged 17 years, badiy burned about the face, chest, arms and internally; will die.

David Kupermann, aged 47 years, burned about the face, arms and hands; condition ortical.

Trice Kupermann, aged 2 years, burned about the hands, face, feet and body; condition critical.

Infant Kupermann, 4 weeks old, badly burnel from head to foot in a dreadful manner; will die.

Heard the Cry of a Child.

The alarm was sent in from box 73. The fire was discovered by the Nosser family. When the engines arrived the house was enveloped in smoke and flame. A fireman was ascending the first ladder placed against the house, when the piteous cry of a child drew his attention to a window. It had been stated to him that all the inmates were in safety. As the cry of the child was heard a second-story window was broken through and two men leaped The house was a two-story frame and burned like tinder. An instant later a fireman came down the ladder with a baby in his arms, followed by another carrying a child. Other firemen followed and in a few minutes three children, their mother and a lad of 17 years had been carried down the ladder, all screaming from pain.

A Pitiful Sight.

The sight was one of the most pitiful. The smell of burned human flesh tainted the air for a block. The victims, several of whom had only been rescued probably to linger until death put a period to the tortures they endured, were taken up tenderly. Of the five carried down all were badly burned. The men who jumped from the front to the property window, were solomore Goldborg. room window were Solomon Goldberg and Frank Smith, who boarded with the family. Goldberg had his wrist torn by broken glass, and Smith had his hip dislocated. The fire was caused by the explosion of a hanging lamp in the dining room. The family were all upstairs, and the flames spread quickly. The room and stairway were filled with flames before they were aware of the sorbing theme in political checles is the Corners, before a large and highly edified COLUMBUS, O., March 17.-The abfate of the Cincinnati charter bill. The assemblage. Hamilton county delegation have returned from their Sunday visit and there is a marked change. With one exception, all of the Cincinnati members are opposed to the bill in its present form, and unless it is amended so as to keep the coard of public improvement in existence it is doubtful whether it will pass. The object is to keep Mr. Reemelin and others in power, and the indications are that the legislative conflict which prevailed during the special session will be renewed. The opposition is not confined to Hamilton county men, but includes members from different parts of the state, and all of the anti-Campbell faction prominent at the special session. It is thought that if Governor Campbell desires the bill can be the Central Time a 17.—Railroads in were notified association territory vesterday by Vice Chairyesterday by Vice Chairman Dor hald that a movement was on foot * o abolish second-class tickets. The nes now sell tickets first class unlimited, first class limited and second class limited. The latter ticket is sold at a reduction of about 10 per cent. on the first-class limited. The objection raised is that certain roads in the association are giving better accommodations than the second-class tickets call for, just to secure business. Each line has been requested to present its views on the question to the Central Traffic association. A number of general passenger agents are of the opinion that it would not be wise to abolish second-class

MUSICAL LOCOMACHY.

Recommended as Superior to Tiddlede Winks.

The following note came to THE IN-DEPENDENT the other day:

MR. EDITOR-The enclosed is from Saturday's Cincinnati Commercial Ga-Babies Among the Unfortunates-The zette. I do not regard sit as a superior literary effort and suspect the writer was personally interested in introducing the game, but if you choose to publish it perhaps some one may be induced to take an interest in a higher order of amusement than tiddledy winks.

Belove in the covered founds.

And the following enclosure:

"There are eight books, each book is a composer's name, each card in the book is a letter in the name; then on the card of the first letter of the name is an account of that composer's birth, incidents in his life and date of death, and at the bottom a bar from his music; this same bar is continued on every card of the book, but the anecdotes about the composer on each card are different, "Take for instance, Book No. 2—Mezart -because the reading matter in that is not so lengthy as some others, and will show you just what I mean.

"M' is the first card. On the cepter of this is Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, was born in Salzburg, January 27, 1756 He was carefully trained by his tather who resigned his position as court musician to devote himself more exclusively to his family.' Then at the bottom a bar from one of his sonatas. "O' is on the next card. On this is

-'Mozart had pupils who nothing of five hours' prace a day.'—The same bit f mosic is continued on each card of that book.

"'Z' is next.—'Mozart's wife was Con stance Weber, and they were married in Mannheim, at the house of the Baroness Waldstetien, in 1772.

"'A' next.—'The culminating point in Mozart's artistic career was in 1786. The marriage of Figaro was the first of a series of masterpieces, which cannot be urpassed, alike for musical greatness and their hold on the lyric stage.

"'R'-'At Rome Mozart attended the Sistine Chapel, and wrote the score of Allegris' great mass, forbidden by the Pope to be copied. from the memory of a single performance.'

"The last card of the book has, 'At the ime of Mozart's last illness the world was ringing his praises. He had the offer of the rich appointment of organist of St. Stephen's cathedral, and flattering propositions were made to him by eager managers. But it was too late. He died

"There you see you have Mozart's life and career in a nutshell; there being eight of these books, all the greatest nusicians, one absorbs quite a knowledge of them in a most pleasant way. It a study in musical literature 'done up in a game. "Musical logomachy is played like an thors, except that there is a 'Yankee D odie' card, the joker of the game, in this, and when one has called a card they need to complete a book, if the one c lled from does not have that card, he may band over whatever card he pleases and if one helds the 'Yankee Doodle,' of course they give that, and so goes round nd r uud' until the end of the game.'

The Body of Carl Ruttinger Identified.

NEW YORK, March 17.—Several persons have now identified the body of the man who was found bound and gagged in the water off Tottenville, S. I., as that of Carl Ruttinger and there is hardly a chance for a mistake in the identification. Ruttinger had his life insured for $6,000 and, owing to this fact, some persons doubt the identification, believing it a conspiracy to defraud the insurance companies. There was a rumor about police headquarters that Wright, the companion of Ruttinger, was Fred Evans, the Englishman who committed suicide in such a horrible manner in the Astor house on the 3d of February, the day after Ruttinger disappeared. The rumor, however, was discredited.

The following item has been going the rounds of the press, and as our druggist, Morganthaler & Heister, handle the goods, it may interest our readers: Having had occasion to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, it gives me pleasure to state that I found it to be the best medicine for a cough I ever used; in fact, it cured me of a cough that had baffled several other cough medicines.— N. R. Burnett, Atalissa Iowa.

Here it is, and it fills the bill much better than anything we could say: "It gives me the greatest pleasure to write you in regard to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. During the past winter I have sold more of it than any other kind, and have yet to find any one but what was benefitted by taking it. I have never had any medicine in my store that gave such universal satisfaction." J. M. Roney, druggist, Geuda Springs, Kan. cent bottles for sale by Morganthaler &
